Condominium Name

This Condominium shall be named and identified as CASA DEL SOL MADRID, A CONDOMINIUM.

The Plat for this Condominium is filed in Condominium Plat Book 80 at Page 35-36 of the Public Records of Pinellas County, Florida.

ARTICLE III

O.V. 5872 AGE 1972

The Condominium Association

The Condominium Association for this Condominium is CASA DEL SOL MADRID ASSOCIATION, INC., a non-profit Florida corporation. The Association has all of the powers and duties set forth in this Declaration and the attached By-Laws, as well as those granted by its charter and the laws of the State of Florida. Power of the Association to purchase an Apartment of this Condominium, to grant easements, licenses or rights of use with respect to any of the Condominium property, to any public entity, to the Developer, or to adjacent Condominiums within the entire CASA DEL SOL Condominium Community shall be unlimited.

ARTICLE IV

The Development Plan

This Condominium has been established and constructed by a Florida Limited Partnership called PINELLAS CASA DEL SOL LTD., the Developer. It is intended to be one of several Condominiums to be constructed on contiguous tracts of land through various phases of construction. As each phase of construction is completed, each shall be declared and established as a separate Condominium, with a separate Association. The several Condominiums will be bound to one another through covenants which provide for the common sharing and use of all common facilities, such as roadways and recreational areas. The rights and obligations of ownership and sharing will be in proportion to the number and size of Apartments within each separate Condominium.

The recreational facilities for the CASA DEL SOL Community are constructed on a tract of land near the properties described above. Legal title to the recreational facilities will be retained by the Owner or the Developer until completion and marketing of all phases of the community. When marketing has been completed, fee simple title will be conveyed to the various Associations as described above, without further consideration or payment by any party. The Developer covenants that from the date of this Declaration, the recreational facilities will be for the exclusive use and enjoyment of the members of the CASA DEL SOL Condominium Community, and their licensees, invitees and assigns. All costs and expenses whatsoever pertaining to the ownership and use of the recreational facilities and other common areas of the CASA DEL SOL Community shall be the sole obligation and expense of this Association and all other Associations which may use and enjoy the same. These expenses shall be assessable and collectible as a part of the regular assessments for maintenance and management created and provided by this Declaration, and are included as a part of the budget for this Condominium.

ARTICLE V

Retained Rights of the Developer

A. Concerning Construction. During such time as the Developer is in the process of construction on any portion of the Condominium Building, the Developer, for itself and its successors and assigns, reserves the right to prohibit persons temporarily from access to any portion of the common elements, and to utilize the same exclusively for construction purposes. No unit owner or his guests or invitees shall in any way interfere with or hamper the Developer, its contractor or its employees, in their construction efforts.

B. Changes by Developer. Until construction of the Condominium has been fully completed, the Developer reserves the right to alter the boundaries between the units, so long as the Developer owns the units so altered, and to increase or decrease the number of units and to alter the boundaries of the common elements. No such change shall be made without an amendment of this Declaration, but such an amendment need be executed and acknowledged only by the Developer and approved by the institutional mortgagee of a first mortgage covering the units affected. Such an amendment shall not require the approval of the Association, its officers, directors or members, or other unit owners within the Condominium.

C. Sale and Leasing Activities. The Developer, its successors and assigns, shall have the right to transact any business necessary or appropriate to consummate sales or rentals of Condominium Parcels, including but not limited to the right to maintain models; to install signs identifying the Condominium Property, and advertising the sale of Condominium Parcels; to maintain employees in offices, models and recreational portions of the Condominium Property; and to use the common elements for marketing purposes. All sales office furnishings, and all personal property used by the Developer, its successors and assigns, in such marketing activities shall not be considered common elements and shall remain the property of the Developer. However, use of the clubhouse for marketing promotional activities shall not exceed one per week or a total of twenty-six (26) times per year.

D. Rights to Grant Easements. The Developer reserves the right to grant, dedicate or establish such additional easements on, over, under and across the common elements of this Condominium for utilities, drainage, ingress and egress, parking and other uses for the benefit of Owners of other lands in the general area of the CASA DEL SOL Condominium Community, as the Developer shall determine to be desirable or appropriate; provided, no such easement shall interfere with the intended use of such areas. The Owners or users of all such easement areas shall, however, be required to bear a proportion of all costs and expenses incident to the ownership, maintenance, use or enjoyment of the easement facilities, upon such fair and equitable basis as the Developer considers to be appropriate.

ARTICLE VI

The apartment boundaries shall also include all the areas within undecorated planes of all screened porches, balconies, patios and glass or other semi-enclosed areas and shall include all screens, glass and doors. These areas are subject to the following restrictive covenants:

(a) All areas exposed to view from the exterior of the building shall be governed by the provisions of the Rules and Regulations for the Condominium, so as to assure a neat, attractive and uniform appearance of the building.

(b) The installation, replacement, repair, alteration or modification of any screening, glass or other construction materials within those areas shall only be made with the prior written approval of the Association, taken through the regular act of a majority of its Board of Directors. In addition, for a period of five (5) years from the date of this Declaration or until the Developer shall have completed all marketing within the CASA DEL SOL Community, the Developer's written approval shall be required.

C. Undivided Shares Appurtenant to Each Condominium Apartment and Allocation of Common Expenses and Common Surpluses. Each Apartment Owner shall be responsible for the common expenses pertaining to his Apartment and any common surpluses shall be owned by such Owner, according to the percentage of ownership in the common elements appurtenant to each Apartment set forth as follows (The percentages are set forth in decimal equivalent):

Assigned parking spaces shall be used only by the owner, tenant, guest, licensee or invitee of such identified parcel. The remaining parking spaces are available generally for tenants, guests, invitees and licensees of each Apartment Owner, without reservation or restriction. Each assigned parking space shall constitute a limited common element which shall not be separated from the Condominium Parcel to which it shall have been assigned, and which shall automatically be transferred to a new owner upon a transfer of ownership of the Condominium Parcel. After the initial conveyance to the owner by the Developer, a parking space may not be covered except upon approval of the Association, and may be used only for the parking of an automobile or other motor vehicle, except upon approval of the Association.

ARTICLE VII

A. Utility Easements. Utility easements are established through the Condominium property as may be required to provide utility services for the Condominium and for all other Condominiums, residences and improvements within the CASA DEL SOL Condominium Community or which may be otherwise constructed on the above described property. However, easements through any Apartment shall only be in accordance with the plans and specifications for the Apartment Building unless approved in writing and duly acknowledged according to law by the Condominium Owner so affected.

B. Easements for Ingress and Egress. Easements for ingress and egress and right-of-way are established for pedestrian traffic over, through, on and across all sidewalks, paths, walkways, lanes and avenues as the same from time to time may exist upon the common elements; and for vehicular traffic over, through, on and across such portions of the common elements as may be intended for such purposes.

Use of these easements, however, for access to the Apartments shall be limited to reasonable hours and reasonable prior notice, except that access may be had at any time in the case of an emergency.

D. Easements of Unintentional and Non-negligent Encroachments. If an Apartment shall encroach upon any common element or upon any other Apartment by reason of original construction, then, if the same cannot be corrected at a cost of less than $500.00, an easement appurtenant to such encroaching Apartment shall exist to the extent of such encroachment, so long as the same shall exist. - A. Apartments shall be used only for residential purposes.
- B. Use and occupancy of an Apartment may be subject to reasonable rules and regulations established by the Association.
- C. The rental of a Condominium Apartment by a Unit Owner may not be prohibited by the Association. The Association may, however, establish reasonable rules and regulations concerning such rental, and may prohibit rental terms of less than four (4) consecutive months in a year.
- D. No nuisances shall be allowed on the property nor shall any use or practice be permitted which is the source of annoyance to residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the residential properties by the Owners.

ARTICLE IX

The Association and the Administration of Condominium Property

- A. The Condominium Association shall have the exclusive responsibility for the administration and management of the Condominium property.

B. Power to Contract. The Association shall have the power to contract for the management and maintenance of the condominium property and to authorize a management agent to assist it in carrying out its powers and duties, by performing such functions as the submission of proposals, collection of assessments, preparation of records, and maintenance, repair, improvement and replacement of the common elements with funds made available by the Association. The Association and its officers shall, however, retain at all times the powers and duties granted by the condominium documents and the Condominium Act, including but not limited to the making of assessments, promulgation of rules and execution of contracts on behalf of the Association.

C. Articles of Incorporation. The Articles of Incorporation of the Association are attached as Exhibit "B" to this Declaration. These Articles of Incorporation may be amended only in accordance with the provisions contained therein.

D. By-Laws. The By-Laws of this Association are attached as Exhibit "C" to this Declaration, and these may be amended only in accordance with the provisions contained therein, or the Articles of Incorporation, or in Chapter 718 of the laws of the State of Florida.

E. Authority to Adopt Rules and Regulations. The initial rules and regulations for this Condominium are attached as Exhibit "D" to this Declaration. These rules and regulations may be amended by deletion, modification or the adoption of new rules and regulations, by a seventy-five percent (75%) vote of the apartment Owners. However, no rule and regulation shall be adopted which would unreasonably interfere with an apartment Owner's right to own, occupy, use or enjoy his individual Condominium apartment in similar fashion to the rights which other fee simple property owners enjoy with respect to their private residential property, as is inherent under the common law of Florida. Unless otherwise required by law, an amendment to the Rules and Regulations shall be effective upon passage and need not be recorded among public records. All such Rules and Regulations shall be construed and enforced as a provision of this Declaration.

F. Powers and Duties. The powers and duties of the Association shall be those set forth in this Declaration, in the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Association, together with those powers reasonably implied to effect the purposes thereof, and together with all such other powers as shall be authorized, given or granted for Condominium Associations under the laws of the State of Florida. If there are conflicts or inconsistencies between this Declaration and either the By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation or the laws of the State of Florida, the terms and provisions of this Declaration shall prevail, and all Apartment Owners covenant to vote in favor of such amendments to such instruments as shall be effective to remove such conflict or inconsistencies.

G. Limitations from Liability of the Association. Notwithstanding the duty of the Association to maintain and repair the Condominium property, the Association shall not be liable to any Apartment Owner for injury, damage or loss, other than the cost of maintenance and repair, caused by any act of omission or commission on its part.

H. Acquisition of Additional Interests. The Association is authorized and empowered to acquire interests in real property of all kinds and description, including easements, rights-of-way, licenses, uses, fee simple ownership, leasehold estates and all other forms of ownership, use or possession in and to recreational facilities of all kinds and descriptions, utilities and utility services, avenues for ingress and egress, and all other property interests beneficial or appropriate for use and enjoyment by its members.

I. Grant of Interests. The Association is empowered and authorized to give, grant, convey and enter into easements, licenses and rights of use and access with other Condominium Associations or any other firm, person, corporation or governmental entity as it shall deem necessary or appropriate.

Maintenance, Repair and Alteration of the Condominium

A. Association Responsibility. The Condominium Association has the exclusive responsibility and authority for the operation, maintenance, repair, alteration and improvement of the common elements, the limited common elements and all Condominium Property of this Condominium.

B. Alterations or Improvements. The Association has the right and authority to make such alterations, improvements, deletions and additions to the common elements and the Condominium Property as it shall deem appropriate and desirable, upon the approval of at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the Apartment Owners. However, such alterations, improvements, deletions or additions shall not be made without the prior written consent of the Developer until the expiration of a period of five (5) years from the date of this Declaration, or until the Developer shall have completed the construction of all phases of all Condominium Apartments which are now or may hereafter be planned, zoned and designated for construction within the CASA DEL SOL Community.

C. Apartment Owner's Responsibility. Each Apartment Owner shall be responsible to maintain, repair and replace all portions of his Apartment at his expense. This shall include all glass, screens, doors and air conditioning units. Such required maintenance, repair and replacement shall be promptly made in all instances where the failure to do so would interfere with the rights of enjoyment or use of adjoining Apartments or the common elements, or would adversely affect the appearance of the condominium.

ARTICLE XI

Assessments

Assessments against the Apartment Owners shall be made or approved by the Association and paid by the Apartment Owners to the Association in accordance with the terms and conditions contained herein and in the Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association. In addition, the following provisions shall apply:

A. Records and Accounts. The Association will maintain a record of all of its receipts and expenditures in accordance with the provisions of the Condominium Act of the State of Florida.

B. Assessments for Common Expenses. Assessments for common expenses shall be made on an annual basis, in advance, in the manner determined by the Board of Directors of the Association in accordance with its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. Each annual period, the Association shall adopt a budget for fixed expenses and assessments which shall be due and payable by each Apartment Owner in equal consecutive monthly payments, at the time and place designated by the Board of Directors.

C. Other Assessments. Subject to other provisions in this Declaration, the Association is vested with the authority to levy additional assessments as it may deem necessary or appropriate for the management, operation, maintenance, repair, replacement, alteration or improvement of the common elements and Condominium Property. These additional assessments shall be paid by the Apartment Owners in the same proportions as is required for the payment of all other assessments.

D. Assessments for Liens and Taxes. All liens of any nature, including taxes and special assessments, levied by governmental authorities which shall become a lien upon more than one Apartment, or upon any portion of the common elements or Condominium Property, shall be paid by the Association as a common expense and shall be assessed against the Apartments and Apartment Owners. All such assessments levied upon the recreational facilities and other common grounds dedicated for the exclusive use of the CASA DEL SOL Community shall be so paid and assessed whether or not legal title to such property shall have been conveyed to the Association at the time of levy. Any such lien which pertains distinctly to individual apartments shall be assessed directly to the apartments so affected.

E. Late Charge for Assessments. If an Apartment Owner shall fail to pay an ordinary budgeted monthly assessment within fifteen (15) days from the date on which the same shall become due and payable, then the Association may levy a late charge as an additional assessment against the defaulting owner, and may collect the same as is provided for the collection of assessments herein. This late charge shall not exceed the sum of $3.00 for each day in which the default shall occur beyond the fifteen (15) day grace period.

F. Lien for Assessment. Each Condominium Apartment Owner shall be responsible for all assessments levied upon his apartment. All unpaid assessments will bear interest at the highest lawful rate, from the due date until the date of payment, plus costs of collection and attorney's fees equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the amount due, and necessary costs of collection, and additional reasonable fees for any appellate litigation. Interest will not be in addition to the late charge provided for in the preceding paragraph, however, if the same would then constitute a usurious rate of interest. The Association shall have a lien upon each Condominium Apartment for all unpaid assessments, late charges and interest. This lien shall be exercised by recording among the Public Records of Pinellas County, Florida a proper Claim of Lien in the name of the Association (or its delegate if there shall be one). The Claim of Lien shall state the amount due, the date when due, a description of the Condominium Apartment, and the name of the record owner. Liens for assessments may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association or its delegate or any Management Corporation managing the affairs of the Association, if the powers of the Association are vested in the Management Corporation by virtue of its agreement with the Association, in like manner of a foreclosure of mortgage on real property.

G. Additional Rights. The rights of this Association for the collection of unpaid assessments are in addition to all rights and remedies which Condominium Associations may now or hereafter have under the laws of the State of Florida and the United States of America.

H. Assessments Not Attributable to Developer. During a period of one (1) year from the date of the recording of this Declaration, the Developer hereby guarantees that the common expenses and assessments for maintenance and repair of the Condominium Property shall not exceed the sums stated in the Budget of the initial year's operating expenses, which is contained as Exhibit D of the Prospectus for this Condominium, and the Developer hereby obligates himself to pay any amount of such common expenses or assessments which are incurred during the guaranteed period and are not produced by assessments up to the stated dollar amount received from other Apartment Owners. In exchange, the Developer shall not be liable for the payment of any common expenses or assessments related to such apartments, and no such expenses or assessments shall be attributed in any way to such apartments during the guarantee period.

ARTICLE XII

Insurance

A. Duty to Insure. The Condominium Association and each Apartment Owner shall maintain in full force and effect the policies of insurance required under this Article. All policies of the Association shall provide for the issuance of mortgagee endorsements to the holders of first mortgages upon apartments, and, if the insurance company will agree, shall provide that the insurer waive his right of subrogation against or between the individual Apartment Owners, the Association, or its delegate. These policies and endorsements shall be held by the Association or its delegate.

B. Condominium Property Coverage. The Association or its delegate shall insure all Condominium Property through non-assessable policies with companies licensed to do business in the State of Florida, against destruction or loss by fire and other casualty, in amounts and upon terms and provisions as it shall deem acceptable. However, all structural improvements upon real property shall be insured in at least the amount of eighty percent (80%) of their insurable or replacement value. In the event of loss, the Association shall use the net insurance proceeds to repair and replace damage to the Condominium Property covered by the policy, with any excesses to be paid to the Apartment Owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear. Any reconstruction, repair or replacement shall be in a form or manner which is at least equal to the original quality. If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover the loss the Association shall levy an assessment against the Apartment Owners in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration to cover the deficiency.

If the Condominium Property is damaged or destroyed in excess of fifty percent (50%) of its value at the time of loss, and if seventy-five percent (75%) of all Apartment Owners shall elect not to rebuild, repair or replace the Condominium Property, the Condominium shall be terminated and the insurance proceeds shall be distributed to the Apartment Owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear.

C. Liability Insurance. The Association shall also obtain and keep in effect a comprehensive public liability insurance policy insuring the Association, its Board of Directors, officers and the Apartment Owners who are its members, against possible liabilities arising out of the use and ownership of the common elements and the Apartment Units. This policy shall be in an amount of not less than $100,000 for claims or damages of personal injuries from any single specific cause to any one person, and to the extent of not less than $300,000 to cover, in connection with any one particular accident or occurrence, the total aggregate of any claim for personal injuries alleged against the insured parties. The insurance shall also provide for a minimum of $25,000 property damage coverage.

D. Additional Insurance. The Association is authorized to carry such further policies of insurance as may, from time to time, be required by state law, or as its Board of Directors may deem appropriate.

E. Insurance Coverage by Apartment Owners. Each Apartment Owner shall obtain additional insurance at his own expense, according coverage upon his apartment, personal property and for his personal tort liability in connection with the same.

F. Apartment Owner's Duty to Reconstruct or Repair Casualty Damage to His Apartment. Where casualty damage occurs within the boundaries of an individual apartment, the Apartment Owner shall commence repairs or replacement of the same within ninety (90) days of the date of casualty or loss, and such repairs shall be at his sole cost and expense. In the event the Apartment Owner shall fail to repair or replace such damage, the Association or its delegate may do so and assess all costs against the Apartment Owner, and these costs shall be a lien against the apartment collectible in the manner set forth in this Declaration for the collection of other liens and assessments. The Association shall approve all plans and specifications to be followed for such repairs or replacements prior to the commencement of the same by the Apartment Owner.

ARTICLE XIII

Compliance and Default

Each Apartment Owner shall be governed by and comply with the terms and conditions of this Declaration of Condominium and the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium Association. A default shall entitle the Association or other Apartment Owners to the remedies and relief set forth below:

A. Legal Proceeding. Failure to comply with any of the terms and conditions contained in this Declaration and the Rules and Regulations of the Association shall entitle the Association and affected Apartment Owners to all remedies available at law or in equity, either under the Condominium Act of the State of Florida or otherwise.

B. Abatement of Utility Services. The Association shall have full power and authority to discontinue all utility services which it shall furnish to an apartment, the owner of which shall be in default in paying any authorized expense or assessment for a period of more than thirty (30) days after the date on which written notice of such default shall have been furnished to him, either personally or by mail to his last known address.

C. Costs and Attorneys' Fees. The Association shall be entitled to recover all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees whether through trial or appellate litigation or otherwise, which it shall incur as a consequence of an Apartment Owner's default or breach of the provisions of this Declaration or the Rules and Regulations, Articles of Incorporation, or By-Laws of the Association.

D. No Waiver of Rights. The failure of the Association or an Apartment Owner to enforce any right, provision, term or condition of this Declaration or the Rules and Regulations, Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws of the Association shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Association or the Apartment Owners to enforce the same in the future.

ARTICLE XIV

Leasing of Apartments

Each Owner has the right to lease his Apartment as he shall desire, subject to the terms and conditions of this Declaration of Condominium and all exhibits and amendments thereto; however, no Apartment may be rented for a period of less than four (4) consecutive months duration. Each lease shall be subject to all provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and all exhibits, amendments and instruments of record pertaining thereto, and to all Rules and Regulations and lawful instructions of the Association and its agents; and all tenants must comply with them. The failure of a Tenant to so comply shall entitle the Association to evict the Tenant and to maintain directly against the Tenant any cause of action which the Association would have against an Owner for such noncompliance by Owner. These provisions shall not in any way limit or relieve the Owner from any cause of action which the Association shall have against the Owner as a consequence of his Tenant's noncompliance. Both the Owner and The Tenant shall be liable to pay all costs and expenses which the Association shall incur in taking such actions, including its attorney's fees, and the Association shall have all lien rights and collection rights as are elsewhere provided in the Declaration for the collection of Assessments, including the late penalty for non-payment. Prior to entering any lease agreement with a Tenant, the Owner shall furnish to the Association or its agent such information concerning the Tenant and the lease terms as the Association may require for this purpose. All leases must contain and shall be deemed to contain the terms and provisions set forth in this paragraph.

ARTICLE XV

Covenants Running With the Land

All provisions of this Declaration and the Rules and Regulations, Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Association shall be construed to be covenants running with the land and every part thereof and interest therein, including but not limited to every apartment and the appurtenances thereto; and every Apartment Owner and claimant of the property or any part thereof or interest therein, and his heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors and assigns shall be bound by all provisions of such instruments.

ARTICLE XVI

Amendment

THIS DECLARATION may be amended only by the vote of an eighty percent (80%) majority of the Unit Owners, in the method provided for Amendments in the Condominium Act of the State of Florida. In addition, any amendment not for clarification only, or made to correct technical errors, shall require the approval of fifty-one percent (51%) of the holders of all mortgages on the Condominium units. During the period in which the Developer shall own one or more Condominium unit, any such amendment shall require also his joinder and approval.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the fee simple owners of said property have

Section 6. Waiver and Consent. Whenever the vote of the members at a meeting is required by any provision of the Florida Statutes, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration of Condominium, or these By-Laws to be taken in connection with any action of the Association, the meeting and vote of members may be dispensed with if not less than three-fourths (3/4) of the members who would have been entitled to vote upon the action of such meeting shall consent in writing to such action being taken.

The first meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately upon adjournment of the meeting of the membership at which the Board is elected, provided a quorum shall then be present, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the place designated for the meeting of the general members, and immediately after the adjournment of the same.

B. The Board of Directors may establish a schedule of regular meetings to be held at such time and place as it may designate. Notice of such regular meeting shall, nevertheless, be given to each Director personally or by mail, telephone or other appropriate method, at least five (5) days prior to the date named for the meeting.

RULES AND REGULATIONS
CASA DEL SOL MADRID, A CONDOMINIUM

D.S. 5872 AG 1998

The following Rules and Regulations have been adopted by the Association to assure residents that the Condominium Property will be used in a manner providing the greatest benefit and enjoyment for all persons. These Rules and Regulations are required to be observed by all residents and guests, and provisions for their strict enforcement are established in the Declaration of Condominium and under the laws of the State of Florida.

1. Noise levels must be kept within acceptable standards at all times, and during the hours of 10:00 p.m. through 10:00 a.m. conversation levels and volume levels of electronic equipment and musical instruments must be kept so that the same cannot be heard outside the Apartment. All rooms other than the kitchen and bath must be fully carpeted.

2. Each occupant shall be required to maintain his Apartment in good condition and repair at all times. Occupants are reminded that the grounds outside of each Apartment are common elements under the Declaration of Condominium, and do not belong to the adjoining Apartment Owner. Occupants shall not store or otherwise leave their personal property lying about these grounds.

3. Occupants may make additional plantings within the landscaped areas surrounding the Apartment, however, maintenance and damage to such plantings shall not be the responsibility of the Association or its management contractor. Further, any additional plantings may be made only with the consent of the Association or the management contractor, and must be maintained by the occupant in a manner acceptable to the Association. Additional plantings, when made, will become a part of the common elements of the Condominium.

4. Porches, patios and balconies shall not be used for the storage of personal property or for hanging or cleaning garments or other household items. No drying of laundry will be permitted outside of the Apartments or in the court yards or patios. These areas must be kept in a clean and neat appearance at all times whether or not they are enclosed.

5. Each Apartment may be used only as a residence for one family containing no persons under the age of sixteen (16) years, and for no other purpose whatsoever. Children under such age are welcome in the Condominium and there is no desire to restrict their normal activities. Nevertheless, children are required to observe the same restrictions as apply to adults, and adult residents with whom children are visiting will be held responsible for the children's observance of these Rules and Regulations.

6. A dog, cat or other domestic pet animal may be permitted to be kept within each apartment, upon the written approval of the Developer, while it is marketing units within the condominium, and thereafter, by the Association. In granting or denying applications, consideration shall be given to the size and type of pet and other relevant circumstances, to determine its suitability to apartment living and the likelihood of disturbance to others. If the Association shall find any pet animal to be objectionable, or detrimental to the rights and interests of other occupants, it shall have full authority to compel the eviction and removal of the pet by any lawful means. By keeping a pet within the Condominium, the pet owner assumes full and total responsibility for all injuries, damages, costs and expenses cause by the pet to any party or to the Condominium property. Pets shall be leashed and under command at all times while within the Condominium property, and shall only be walked in areas designated by the Association for this purpose. Pet owners shall remove all excrement from these areas, as and when left by the pet.

7. No antennas may be installed upon the exterior of any building without the prior written consent of the Association or its Management Contractor. the exterior of any Apartment. This prohibition shall expressly apply to "For Rent" or "For Sale" signs. However, each Apartment Owner may identify his Apartment by a name plate of a size approved by the Association or its Management Contractor and mounted in an approved place.

8. Garbage and trash shall be disposed of only in areas designated for such use by the Association or its Management Contractor or in receptacles supplied by the Association.

9. The Association has the sole responsibility for the maintenance and repair of the Apartment Building, except for interior portions of apartments, and doors, glass, and screen installations. No owner or occupant shall make any exterior repair, modification or painting, without the prior written approval of the Condominium Association or the Management Contractor. No exterior enclosures, storage sheds or other structures whatsoever may be installed in or constructed upon the common area or balconies. Enclosures and structures may be installed within the patio areas of first floor apartments with the prior written approval of the Association and the Developer being first obtained, in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium.

10. The care and maintenance of the Condominium Property has been contracted through a Management Contractor. No owner or occupant shall attempt to direct, supervise or assert any control whatsoever over the employees of the Management Contractor or to otherwise interfere with the contractor's maintenance responsibilities. All requests for service, care and maintenance of the Condominium Property or the recreational areas shall be made to the Management Contractor in writing.

11. All official notices of the Association shall bear the signature of an officer and the official seal of either the Association, or, in the alternative, the Management Contractor. No member shall make, circulate or post notices of any kind or type whatsoever which purport or represent to be an official notice of the Association or its Management Contractor. Notices of a social nature may be freely circulated, however, such notices must bear the signature of the party circulating the same, and such party shall be fully responsible for their contents.

12. The recreation facilities and common areas within the CASA DEL SOL Community will be used in such manner as will respect the rights of all community residents. Use of the recreational facilities will be controlled by Rules and Regulations issued from time to time by the Developer, until such facilities and areas are conveyed to the Association; and thereafter, by the Associations through majority vote of their several Boards of Directors. In general, the use of the recreational facilities will be prohibited between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 8:00 a.m.

13. Occupants shall park their vehicles only in spaces or driveways which are available for use in connection with their Condominium Apartment. No occupant's vehicle shall be parked in the common roadways or in such a manner as to impede or prevent ready access to another occupant's parking space or driveway. Occupants must not permit their guests, tenants, licensees or invitees to park vehicles in the driveways or parking areas of other owners. Driveways, garages and parking areas are intended for the parking of private transportation vehicles and shall not be used for the storage or parking of recreational vehicles, commercial vehicles, equipment or craft. Occupants may not repair or service their vehicles within the parking area.

14. Each Owner has the right to lease his Apartment as he shall desire, subject to the terms and conditions of this Declaration of Condominium and all exhibits and amendments thereto. However, no Apartment may be rented for a period of less than four (4) consecutive months duration. Each Owner shall be strictly responsible for the faithful observance by his Tenant of the Rules and Regulations, all governing provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, and Florida laws. In addition, every lease of an Apartment shall be subject to the provisions of the Declaration and all other instruments of record pertaining thereto, and all Rules, Regulations and lawful instructions of the Association and its agent, and all Tenants must comply with them. The failure of a Tenant to so comply shall entitle the Association to evict the Tenant and to maintain directly against the Tenant any cause of action which the Association would have against an Owner for such noncompliance by Owner. The Tenant shall be liable to pay all costs and expenses which the Association shall incur in taking such action, including its attorney's fees, and if the Tenant shall fail to pay such costs and expenses, the Owner shall be liable to pay them, and the Association shall have all lien rights and collection rights as are elsewhere provided in the Declaration for the collection of Assessments, including the late penalty for non-payment. These provisions shall not in any way limit or relieve the Owner from any cause of action which the Association shall have against the Owner as a consequence of his Tenant's noncompliance. Prior to entering any lease agreement with a Tenant, the Owner shall furnish to the Association or its agent such information concerning the Tenant and the lease terms as the Association may require for its purpose. All leases must contain and shall be deemed to contain the terms and provisions set forth in this paragraph.

15. No fences, walls or hedgerows may be constructed upon any Lot without the prior written approval of the Architectural Control Committee, except those which have been initially constructed by the Developer.

16. Carports shall be maintained in a good state of repair and appearance at all times, by the Owner or Owners thereof. Failure to do so shall entitle the Association to all rights and remedies provided for in the Declaration of Covenants, Easements and Restrictions.
